FOR ALL POSITIONS:

- The criminal history of an applicant will only be considered after the final interview which is conducted in person or an offer of employment has been made, whichever occurs first.
- TRI-GID may, before selecting an applicant as a finalist or extending a conditional offer, notify the applicant of any provisions of law that disqualify a person with a particular criminal history from employment in a particular position.
- A record of conviction will not necessarily bar the applicant from employment. Factors to be considered when looking at records of criminal history include:
  - Length of time passed since the offense;
  - Age of applicant at the time of the offense;
  - Severity and nature of the offense;
  - Relationship of the offense to the position applying for; and
  - Evidence of rehabilitation of the applicant.
- The following will not be considered:
  - Arrests which did not result in a conviction;
  - Record of convictions that were dismissed, expunged, or sealed; and
  - Infractions or misdemeanors for which a sentence of imprisonment in a county jail was not imposed.
